Pamlico County JobLink Career Center

If you are a LOW INCOME adult or a DISLOCATED WORKER, then the Pamlico County JobLink Career Center may be able to assist you this summer with paying for books, tuition, and fees.

A Low Income Individual is someone who
- receives cash payment from a Federal, State, or local income based public assistance program,
- has income or is a member of a family whose income does not exceed the higher of the poverty line or 70% of the lower living standard income level,
- is a member of a household that receives or has been determined eligible to receive food stamps, or
- qualifies as a homeless individual.

A Dislocated Worker is someone who has been
- terminated or laid off,
- received a notice of termination or layoff,
- received a notice of termination due to closure, or
- experienced a substantial layoff at a plant or facility.

If any of these qualifications apply to you, please contact Eric Cedars at the Pamlico County JobLink Career Center, (252) 745-9934.
