“So You Want To Write A Book And Book Signing”
New Bern Author, Karen Dodd, will discuss the trials and tribulations of self-publishing! The dangers of doing it yourself include avoiding the “phishing for your money” ads, poor editing, sloppy formatting, blurred photos and under marketing. She will point out things to consider for cover selection, publishers, local help available and how to create your book in 12 months or less.
Dodd who is a successful writer and publisher of eight books, including both fiction and non-fiction, and journalist for Our State and several popular boating magazines, will also have copies of her latest trilogy, the Riverwalk Mysteries, about a fictional sleuth living in New Bern. The character reminds one of the Angela Lansbury series, “Murder She Wrote.”
Tuesday, September 6th, 2:00 pm, $10.00
PCC Library, refreshments served.
